

Seasonal ideas

Winter

- Festive alternative to Coffee mornings and bake sales: Mince pie & mulled wine or Christmas biscuit competition, at home or at work.
- Craft afternoon making wreaths, ornaments or Christmas
- Christmas Jumper Day (in the office)
- Letters to Father Christmas: Make a post box to stand in your community or workplace for children to post a letter to Santa. For a donation, they can receive a letter back from the man himself (or possibly one of his helpers)!
- Set up a present-wrapping station at work or in your community
- Santa Run
- Caroling: order your collection box here
- New year new start: get sponsored to take up a new healthy habit!
- Movie Night: how about a Romcom on Valentine's Day?

Spring

- Pancake Day: you could charge per pancake
- Offer to walk your neighbours and friends' dogs in return for a donation
- Spring clean
- #IGiveMy: Give up a treat for Lent and donate the money you're saving or ask people to sponsor you
- Easter Egg Hunt.
- Holi: Get your friends round to celebrate the festival of colour in style. Paint powder fight in the park, anyone?
- Get together for a sponsored walk
- Spring picnic

- Flower sale from your own garden
- Afternoon cream tea

Summer

- Hold events in your garden and charge for entry: BBQ, afternoon tea or even a pool party if you are lucky to have one in your garden
- Charity Ball with tickets and auction
- Camp out: in the wild or in your garden – just don't forget the marshmallows!
- Garden cinema: if you can get your hands on a projector, hang a sheet and get the deckchairs out!

Autumn

- Bulbs and plant sale
- Oktoberfest: invite friends to try and rate some craft beers
- Halloween disco with costume competition
- Bonfire night firework display
- Curry Night: host at home or organise a collection at a restaurant
